UNITED NATIONS

E

Economic and Social Council

Distr.
GENERAL

CRC/C/40/Rev.12
19 March 1999

Original: ENGLISH

COMMITTEE ON THE RIGHTS OF THE CHILD
Twenty-first session
Geneva, 17 May - 4 June 1999
Item 8 of the provisional agenda

METHODS OF WORK OF THE COMMITTEE

Note by the Secretary-General

1. The Committee on the Rights of the Child has on several occasions emphasized the importance it attaches to areas where technical assistance would seem appropriate in a particular country, as arising from the consideration of a State party's report and in the light of the provisions of article 45 (b) of the Convention.

2. A table indicating areas in which the need for technical advice and advisory services has been identified in the light of the observations adopted by the Committee at its third to twentieth sessions is to be found in the annex to the present document.

GE.99-40985 (E)

Annex

AREAS IDENTIFIED BY THE COMMITTEE FOR ADVISORY SERVICES AND TECHNICAL ADVICE AND ASSISTANCE

State party	Initial report	Observations by the Committee	Areas identified for advisory services and technical assistance
Algeria	CRC/C/28/Add.4	CRC/C/15/Add.76 (fifteenth session)	Para. 32 - Technical assistance from UNICEF to initiate studies and follow-up surveys on vulnerable groups of children.
Azerbaijan	CRC/C/11/Add.8	CRC/C/15/Add.77 (fifteenth session)	Para. 48 - International cooperation, if necessary, to address the physical, psychological and social reintegration needs of children affected by the armed conflict and related types of violence. Para. 49 - Technical assistance from the High Commissioner/Centre for Human Rights and the Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice Division of the United Nations for a comprehensive reform of the juvenile justice system.
Bangladesh	CRC/C/3/Add.38 and Add.49	CRC/C/15/Add.74 (fifteenth session)	Para. 44 - Present cooperation between the State party, international organizations such as ILO and UNICEF, and non-governmental organizations to be expanded. Para. 45 - Assistance from UNHCR to ensure adequate protection of refugee children and facilitate family reunification. Para. 46 - Technical assistance from the High Commissioner/Centre for Human Rights and the Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice Division of the United Nations in the area of the administration of juvenile justice.

State party	Initial report	Observations by the Committee	Areas identified for advisory services and technical assistance
Belarus	CRC/C/3/Add.14	CRC/C/15/Add.17 (fifth session)	Para. 18 - Assistance from UNICEF, WHO, Centre for Human Rights and other interested organizations for, inter alia, harmonization of legislation and measures with CRC, development of coordinating body on children's rights, determining the targeting of programmes, the major thrust of policies and the mobilization of resources for the rights of the child. International assistance for measures to cope with aftermath of Chernobyl nuclear disaster.
Belize	CRC/C/3/Add.46	CRC/C/15/Add.99 (twentieth session)	Para. 7 - Technical assistance from, inter alia, OHCHR, to review the State party's domestic legislation. Para. 12 - International cooperation to support the State party in fulfilling its obligations under article 4 of the Convention. Para. 13 - International cooperation from, inter alia, OHCHR, UNICEF and UNESCO, for the dissemination of the principles and provisions of the Convention, and for the training of professionals working with and for children. Para. 22 - International cooperation from, inter alia, UNICEF, for the development of legislation, social programmes and rehabilitation measures to prevent and combat child abuse.

State party	Initial report	Observations by the Committee	Areas identified for advisory services and technical assistance
Belize (cont'd)	CRC/C/3/Add.46	CRC/C/15/Add.99 (twentieth session)	Para. 24 - International cooperation from, inter alia, UNICEF and WHO for the establishment of programmes such as "Integrated Management of Childhood Illness" to prevent and combat children's malnutrition and reduce the incidence of child and infant mortality. Para. 26 - Technical assistance from, inter alia, UNICEF and WHO, for the training of professional staff working with and for children with disabilities. Para. 27 - Cooperation from, inter alia, UNICEF and UNESCO, to strengthen the educational system. Para. 29 - Technical assistance from, inter alia, UNICEF, WHO and the United Nations International Narcotics Control Board, for the establishment of rehabilitation programmes for children victims of drug and substance abuse. Para. 30 - Technical assistance from OHCHR, the Centre for International Crime Prevention, the International Network on Juvenile Justice and UNICEF, through the Coordination Panel on Juvenile Justice, for legal reform and training activities in the field of the administration of juvenile justice.

State party	Second periodic report	Observations by the Committee	Areas identified for advisory services and technical assistance
Bolivia	CRC/C/65/Add.1	CRC/C/15/Add.95 (nineteenth session)	Para. 12 - International cooperation, including from UNICEF, for the identification of appropriate disaggregated indicators for all areas covered by the Convention and for all groups of children under 18. Para. 13 - Cooperation with UNICEF for the dissemination of the principles and provisions of the Convention, especially its translation in the three national languages other than Spanish. Para. 15 - International cooperation to support the State party in fulfilling its obligations under article 4 of the Convention. Para. 19 - Cooperation from non-governmental organizations and support from intergovernmental organizations to ensure that birth registration procedures are widely known and understood by the population at large. Para. 24 - International cooperation to ensure access to basic health care and services for all children and for the development of adolescent health policy and programmes. Para. 25 - Technical assistance from UNHCR to introduce legislation for the protection of refugee children. Para. 27 - Technical cooperation for the clearance of landmines. Para. 28 - Technical assistance from the Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights, the Centre for International Crime Prevention, the International Network on Juvenile Justice and UNICEF, through the Coordination Panel on Juvenile Justice, for legal reform in the field of the administration of juvenile justice.

State party	Initial report	Observations by the Committee	Areas identified for advisory services and technical assistance
Bulgaria	CRC/C/8/Add.29	CRC/C/15/Add.66 (fourteenth session)	Para. 22 - International cooperation for the development of a system of data collection and identification of appropriate disaggregated indicators. Para. 34 - Technical assistance from the High Commissioner/Centre for Human Rights and the Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice Division of the United Nations in the area of juvenile justice.
Burkina Faso	CRC/C/3/Add.19	CRC/C/15/Add.19 (sixth session)	Para. 18 - Assistance from the programme of advisory services and technical assistance of the Centre for Human Rights in the field of the administration of juvenile justice - support from the international community in the fields of legislative review, training of law enforcement personnel, judges and other administration of justice officials, and for the development of an adequate data collection system on the situation of children.
Chile	CRC/C/3/Add.18	CRC/C/15/Add.22 (sixth session)	Para. 17 - Availability of the programme of advisory services and technical assistance of the Centre for Human Rights to assist in establishing a legal system of administration of juvenile justice.

State party	Initial report	Observations by the Committee	Areas identified for advisory services and technical assistance
China	CRC/C/11/Add.7	CRC/C/15/Add.56 (twelfth session)	Para. 29 - Cooperation with UNICEF in widely disseminating throughout the country, including through mass media, the principles and provisions of the Convention. Para. 39 - Cooperation with UNICEF, WHO and UNESCO for further training of staff in welfare institutions, for effective supervision of staff and periodic review of treatment provided to children in such institutions and, in light of other issues raised during the dialogue, for reviewing systems in place for monitoring welfare institutions and providing them with adequate financing. Para. 42 - Assistance from relevant United Nations bodies including the Centre for Human Rights to thoroughly review the legislative and administrative measures and procedures in relation to juvenile justice to ensure their conformity with the Convention and other instruments relevant in this field.
Colombia	CRC/C/8/Add.3	CRC/C/15/Add.15 (preliminary) (fifth session) CRC/C/15/Add.30 (concluding) (eighth session)	Para. 16 - Closer cooperation with relevant international agencies to assess the implementation of the Convention and narrow the gap between law and practice. Para. 19 - Assistance from ILO in the area of child labour. Para. 24 - Cooperation with United Nations bodies and specialized agencies, including the Centre for Human Rights, to embark upon major reform in all areas of concern indicated.

State party	Initial report	Observations by the Committee	Areas identified for advisory services and technical assistance
Cuba	CRC/C/8/Add.30	CRC/C/15/Add.72 (fifteenth session)	Para. 30 - International cooperation for the collection, compilation and analysis of disaggregated data concerning children up to the age of 18, including information on the violations of the rights of the child.
Democratic People's Republic of Korea	CRC/C/3/Add.41	CRC/C/15/Add.88 (eighteenth session)	Para. 20 - International cooperation to prevent and combat malnutrition of children with all appropriate measures. Para. 22 - International cooperation, including from UNICEF, for the identification of appropriate disaggregated indicators with a view to addressing all areas of the Convention and all groups of children. Para. 24 - International cooperation, especially from UNICEF, for the incorporation of the Convention in the curricula of all educational institutions and appropriate measures to facilitate access by children to information on their rights; comprehensive training programmes for professional groups working with and for children; and dissemination activities about the Convention. Para. 31 - International cooperation to study the impact of environmental pollution on children.

State party	Initial report	Observations by the Committee	Areas identified for advisory services and technical assistance
Ecuador	CRC/C/3/Add.44	CRC/C/15/Add.93 (nineteenth session)	Para. 14 - International cooperation, including from UNICEF, for the identification of appropriate disaggregated indicators with a view to addressing all areas of the Convention and all groups of children. Para. 15 - International cooperation to support the State party in fulfilling its obligations under article 4 of the Convention. Para. 20 - Cooperation from non-governmental organizations and support from intergovernmental organizations to ensure that birth registration procedures are widely known and understood by the population at large. Para. 21 - International cooperation from, inter alia, UNICEF and international non-governmental organizations for the development of social programmes and rehabilitation measures to prevent and combat child abuse. Para. 22 - International cooperation for the establishment of programmes such as the WHO/UNICEF programme "Integrated Management of Childhood Illness" to prevent and combat malnutrition in children. Para. 24 - International cooperation to prevent and combat the damaging effects of environmental degradation, including pollution, on children. Para. 28 - Technical assistance from UNHCR to introduce legislation for the protection of refugee children. Para. 29 - Technical cooperation from ILO to prevent and combat the economic exploitation of children.

State party	Initial report	Observations by the Committee	Areas identified for advisory services and technical assistance
Ecuador (cont'd)	CRC/C/3/Add.44	CRC/C/15/Add.93 (nineteenth session)	Para. 32 - Technical assistance from the Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights, the Centre for International Crime Prevention, the International Network on Juvenile Justice and UNICEF, through the Coordination Panel on Juvenile Justice, for legal reform in the field of the administration of juvenile justice.
Ethiopia	CRC/C/8/Add.27	CRC/C/15/Add.67 (fourteenth session)	Para. 26 - Technical assistance from the United Nations Children's Fund (UNICEF) for improving the data collection system and further studies and follow-up surveys on vulnerable groups of children. Para. 33 - Cooperation with the International Labour Organization with a view to envisaging ratification of ILO Convention No. 138. Para. 34 - Technical assistance from the High Commissioner/Centre for Human Rights and the Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice Division of the United Nations in the area of the administration of juvenile justice. Para. 36 - Organization of a meeting of international organizations, including organizations and agencies of the United Nations system and non-governmental organizations and national authorities, to assess needs for further international assistance to promote and protect child rights.

State party	Initial report	Observations by the Committee	Areas identified for advisory services and technical assistance
Fiji	CRC/C/28/Add.7	CRC/C/15/Add.89 (eighteenth session)	Para. 29 - International cooperation from, inter alia, UNICEF for the development of a comprehensive system of collecting dissagregated data on the situation of children in the various areas covered by the Convention. Para. 31 - International cooperation for the full implementation of article 4 of the Convention (implementation of economic, social and cultural rights within the framework of international cooperation). Para. 40 - International cooperation from, inter alia, UNICEF and WHO for the training of professional staff working with and for children with disabilities. Para. 42 - Technical cooperation from, inter alia, UNICEF and the ILO to prevent and combat economic exploitation. Para. 43 - Technical assistance from, inter alia, UNICEF and WHO to prevent and combat drug and substance abuse among children. Para. 46 - International assistance from, inter alia, the Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights, the Centre for International Crime Prevention, the International Network on Juvenile Justice and UNICEF through the Coordination Panel on Juvenile Justice for legal reform in the administration of juvenile justice.

State party	Initial report	Observations by the Committee	Areas identified for advisory services and technical assistance
Ghana	CRC/C/3/Add.39	CRC/C/15/Add.73 (fifteenth session)	Para. 30 - International cooperation for the development of a system of data collection and analysis as well as the identification of appropriate disaggregated indicators with a view to addressing all areas of the Convention and all groups of children in society. Para. 40 - International cooperation to prevent and combat malnutrition. Para. 43 - Further international cooperation for the implementation of measures identified for the application of the provisions of articles 28 and 29 of the Convention. Para. 46 - Technical assistance from competent international organizations, such as WHO, to prevent and combat drug and substance abuse among children and support rehabilitation programmes. Para. 48 - Technical assistance from the High Commissioner/Centre for Human Rights and the Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice Division of the United Nations for a comprehensive reform of the juvenile justice system.

State party	Initial report	Observations by the Committee	Areas identified for advisory services and technical assistance
Guatemala	CRC/C/3/Add.33	CRC/C/15/Add.58 (twelfth session)	Para. 28 - International cooperation in particular from UNICEF in developing a system of data collection and identifying appropriate disaggregated indicators. Para. 29 - International cooperation from UNICEF and other organizations to disseminate information and education about children's rights to children and adults alike. Para. 35 - International cooperation from relevant international organizations to address issues relating to the reproductive health of women. Para. 40 - Technical assistance from relevant international organizations including the Centre for Human Rights, in revising the juvenile justice system. Para. 41 - Technical assistance from ILO in launching effective public awareness campaigns for the prevention and elimination of child labour in the light of article 32 of the Convention.
Guinea	CRC/C/3/Add.48	CRC/C/15/Add.100 (twentieth session)	Para. 8 - Technical assistance from, inter alia, OHCHR and UNICEF, to review the State party's domestic legislation. Para. 10 - International cooperation, including from UNICEF, for the identification of appropriate disaggregated indicators for all areas covered by the Convention and for all groups of children under 18. Para. 11 - International cooperation to support the State party in fulfilling its obligations under article 4 of the Convention. Para. 24 - International cooperation from, inter alia, UNICEF and WHO for the establishment of programmes such as "Integrated Management of Childhood Illness" to prevent and combat children's malnutrition and reduce the incidence of child and infant mortality.

State party	Initial report	Observations by the Committee	Areas identified for advisory services and technical assistance
Guinea (cont'd)	CRC/C/3/Add.48	CRC/C/15/Add.100 (twentieth session)	Para. 25 - International cooperation from, inter alia, UNICEF, WHO and UNAIDS, for the strengthening of programmes relating to the incidence and treatment of children infected with and affected by HIV/AIDS. Para. 27 - International assistance from, inter alia, UNICEF and WHO, for the strengthening of reproductive health education programmes and counselling services. Para. 28 - International cooperation for the training of professional staff working with and for children with disabilities. Para. 30 - International cooperation from, inter alia, UNICEF and UNESCO, for the strengthening of the educational system. Para. 31 - Technical assistance from, inter alia, UNHCR and UNICEF to introduce legislation and alternative care measures for refugee children. Para. 32 - International cooperation from ILO in the field of child labour. Para. 33 - Technical assistance from, inter alia, UNICEF and WHO for the establishment of rehabilitation programmes for children victims of drug and substance abuse. Para. 36 - Technical assistance from the OHCHR, the Centre for International Crime Prevention, the International Network on Juvenile Justice and UNICEF, through the Coordination Panel on Juvenile Justice, for legal reform in the field of the administration of juvenile justice.

State party	Initial report	Observations by the Committee	Areas identified for advisory services and technical assistance
Honduras	CRC/C/3/Add.17	CRC/C/15/Add.24 (seventh session)	Para. 22 - Organization of a meeting with members of the Committee, the donor community, the World Bank, the IMF, UNICEF and other intergovernmental and non-governmental organizations to discuss availability of resources to implement the Convention within the framework of international cooperation. Para. 34 - Technical assistance from UNHCR to introduce legislation for the protection of the rights of refugees.
Hungary	CRC/C/8/Add.34	CRC/C/15/Add.87 (eighteenth session)	Para. 38 - Technical assistance in the field of the administration of juvenile justice from, inter alia, the Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights, the Centre for International Crime Prevention, the International Network on Juvenile Justice and UNICEF through the Coordination Panel on Juvenile Justice.
Indonesia	CRC/C/3/Add.10 and Add.26	CRC/C/15/Add.7 (preliminary) (fourth session) CRC/C/15/Add.25 (concluding) (sixth session)	Para. 19 - Law reforms to ensure conformity with the Convention. (Activities developed by the programme of advisory services and technical assistance of the Centre for Human Rights.) Para. 18 - Assistance from the programme of advisory services and technical assistance of the Centre for Human Rights for the review of child-related laws to ensure conformity with the Convention. Para. 23 - Technical advice from ILO on legislation and monitoring mechanisms for the protection of working children.

State party	Initial report	Observations by the Committee	Areas identified for advisory services and technical assistance
Iraq	CRC/C/41/Add.3	CRC/C/15/Add.94 (nineteenth session)	Para. 9 - International cooperation for the introduction of policies and programmes that guarantee the implementation of the existing legislation. Para. 13 - International cooperation, including from UNICEF, for the identification of appropriate disaggregated indicators for all areas covered by the Convention and for all groups of children under 18. Para. 15 - Cooperation from the Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights, UNICEF and the International Committee of the Red Cross for the dissemination of the principles and provisions of the Convention, especially its translation into all minority languages, and for the training of professionals working with and for children. Para. 23 - International cooperation for the establishment of programmes such as the WHO/UNICEF programme "Integrated Management of Childhood Illness" to prevent and combat malnutrition in children. Para. 25 - International cooperation from, inter alia, UNICEF and WHO for the training of professionals working with and for children with disabilities. Para. 29 - Technical cooperation for the clearance of landmines and for the establishment of rehabilitation programmes for the victims of landmines. Para. 30 - Technical assistance from the Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights, the Centre for International Crime Prevention, the International Network on Juvenile Justice and UNICEF, through the Coordination Panel on Juvenile Justice, for legal reform in the field of the administration of juvenile justice.

State party	Initial report	Observations by the Committee	Areas identified for advisory services and technical assistance
Jamaica	CRC/C/8/Add.12	CRC/C/15/Add.32 (eighth session)	Para. 18 - Assistance from the Centre for Human Rights in undertaking law reform. Para. 19 - Meeting to discuss, within the framework of international cooperation, the implementation of the Convention. Para. 28 - Technical assistance from UNESCO for a thorough review of the education system. Para. 29 - Assistance from ILO and UNICEF in the area of child labour. Para. 30 - Technical assistance from the Centre for Human Rights and the Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice Branch in law reform in the field of the administration of juvenile justice.
Kuwait	CRC/C/8/Add.35	CRC/C/15/Add.97 (nineteenth session)	Para. 13 - International cooperation, including from UNICEF, for the identification of appropriate disaggregated indicators for all areas covered by the Convention and for all groups of children under 18. Para. 14 - Technical assistance from, inter alia, the Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights and UNICEF for the dissemination of the principles and provisions of the Convention and for the training of professionals working with and for children. Para. 30 - International cooperation for the clearance of landmines. Para. 32 - Technical assistance from the Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights, the Centre for International Crime Prevention, the International Network on Juvenile Justice and UNICEF, through the Coordination Panel on Juvenile Justice, for legal reform in the field of the administration of juvenile justice.

State party	Initial report	Observations by the Committee	Areas identified for advisory services and technical assistance
Lao People's Democratic Republic	CRC/C/8/Add.32	CRC/C/15/Add.78 (sixteenth session)	Para. 30 - International cooperation with, among others, the Office of the High Commissioner for Human Rights and the United Nations Children's Fund (UNICEF) for a comprehensive review of legislation. Para. 35 - Assistance from, among others, UNICEF, in strengthening the monitoring capacity. Para. 36 - Assistance from, among others, UNICEF to develop public awareness about the Convention. Para. 37 - Assistance from, among others, the Office of the High Commissioner for Human Rights and UNICEF for the development of training on child rights for professional groups working with and for children. Para. 48 - Further international assistance for the implementation of article 28 of the Convention. Para. 50 - Technical assistance from the International Labour Organization for the eventual ratification of ILO Convention No. 138. Para. 52 - Technical assistance from competent international organizations, such as the World Health Organization, to prevent and combat drug and substance abuse among children and support rehabilitation programmes. Para. 53 - Technical assistance from the Office of the High Commissioner for Human Rights and the Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice Division of the United Nations for legal reform in the administration of juvenile justice.

State party	Initial report	Observations by the Committee	Areas identified for advisory services and technical assistance
Lebanon	CRC/C/8/Add.23	CRC/C/15/Add.54 (twelfth session)	Para. 44 - International assistance in the area of the administration of juvenile justice from the Centre for Human Rights and the Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice Division of the United Nations. Para. 45 - Cooperation of relevant international agencies and institutions and other Governments with Lebanese authorities and voluntary organizations in the reconstruction effort.
Libyan Arab Jamahiriya	CRC/C/28/Add.6	CRC/C/15/Add.84 (seventeenth session)	Para. 21 - Technical assistance from, inter alia, the Office of the High Commissioner for Human Rights and UNICEF for training on the rights of the child for professional groups and incorporating the Convention on the Rights of the Child in school and university curricula. Para. 22 - Technical assistance from, inter alia, UNICEF and ILO for collecting disaggregated data on children and for studies on vulnerable groups of children. Para. 26 - Technical assistance from, inter alia, UNICEF and WHO for research on chronic malnutrition, stunting and diarrhoea. Para. 31 - Technical assistance from, inter alia, the Office of the High Commissioner for Human Rights, the United Nations Centre for International Crime Prevention and UNICEF for the reform of the system of juvenile justice and for training programmes on relevant international standards.

State party	Initial report	Observations by the Committee	Areas identified for advisory services and technical assistance
Madagascar	CRC/C/8/Add.5	CRC/C/15/Add.26 (seventh session)	Para. 21 - Assistance from ILO to reinforce State party's capacity to monitor the Convention in the area of child exploitation. Para. 22 - Technical assistance from the Centre for Human Rights and the Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice Branch in the area of administration of juvenile justice.
Maldives	CRC/C/8/Add.33 and 37	CRC/C/15/Add.91 (eighteenth session)	Para. 28 - International cooperation from, inter alia, UNICEF to develop a comprehensive system of collecting disaggregated data. Para. 32 - International assistance from, inter alia, the Office of the High Commissioner for Human Rights and UNICEF for the dissemination of the principles and provisions of the Convention and training to all professional groups working with and for children. Para. 40 - International cooperation from, inter alia, UNICEF and WHO for the training of professional staff working with and for children with disabilities. Para. 41 - International assistance from, inter alia, UNESCO and UNICEF to make primary education compulsory and available free to all, to improve the training of schoolteachers and the access to education of the most vulnerable groups of children. Para. 44 - Technical assistance from, inter alia, UNICEF and WHO to prevent and combat drug and substance abuse among children. Para. 45 - International assistance from, inter alia, the Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights, the Centre for International Crime Prevention, the International Network on Juvenile Justice and UNICEF through the Coordination Panel on Juvenile Justice for reform of the administration of juvenile justice.

State party	Initial report	Observations by the Committee	Areas identified for advisory services and technical assistance
Mauritius	CRC/C/3/Add.36	CRC/C/15/Add.64 (thirteenth session)	Para. 24 - International cooperation for the development of a system of data collection and the identification of appropriate indicators. Para. 28 - International cooperation to address the issue of the impact of malnutrition on child development in connection with school drop-out and child labour. Strengthening of cooperation with ILO and UNICEF. Para. 32 - Assistance from the High Commissioner/Centre for Human Rights and the Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice Division in the area of administration of juvenile justice.
Micronesia (Federated States of)	CRC/C/28/Add.5	CRC/C/15/Add.86 (seventeenth session)	Para. 22 - International cooperation with, inter alia, the Office of the High Commissioner for Human Rights and UNICEF for the adoption of specific legislation for children and adolescents. Para. 27 - Assistance from, inter alia, UNICEF, for the development of a comprehensive system of data collection. Para. 28 - Assistance from, inter alia, UNICEF and UNESCO to increase public awareness about the Convention and develop appropriate material to further promote it. Para. 29 - Assistance from, inter alia, the Office of the High Commissioner for Human Rights and UNICEF for the development of training on child rights for professional groups working with and for children.

State party	Initial report	Observations by the Committee	Areas identified for advisory services and technical assistance
Micronesia (Federated States of) (cont'd)	CRC/C/28/Add.5	CRC/C/15/Add.86 (seventeenth session)	Para. 39 - Technical assistance from, inter alia, UNICEF to protect children from economic exploitation. Para. 40 - Technical assistance from, inter alia, the World Health Organization to prevent and combat drug and substance abuse among children and support rehabilitation programmes for child victims of such abuse. Para. 41 - Technical assistance from the Office of the High Commissioner for Human Rights, the Centre for International Crime Prevention, the International Network on Juvenile Justice and UNICEF, through the Coordination Panel on juvenile justice, for legal reform in the field of the administration of juvenile justice.
Mongolia	CRC/C/3/Add.32	CRC/C/15/Add.48 (eleventh session)	Para. 30 - Assistance from Centre for Human Rights and Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice Branch, in the framework of ongoing technical assistance programmes, in law reform in the field of children's rights and training of professionals working with children, with special attention to training in the relevant international standards. Assistance to current efforts from other organizations, including ILO, UNHCR, UNICEF and WHO, and the international community.

State party	Initial report	Observations by the Committee	Areas identified for advisory services and technical assistance
Morocco	CRC/C/28/Add.1	CRC/15/Add.60 (thirteenth session)	Para. 19 - Pursue cooperation with High Commissioner/Centre for Human Rights in the field of training on the rights of the child and human rights. Para. 22 - Implementation of policies and measures for the promotion and protection of the rights of the child both at central and local levels in cooperation with United Nations bodies and specialized agencies, including UNICEF and ILO. Para. 24 - Further technical cooperation from ILO with a view to envisaging ratifying ILO Convention No. 138. Para. 28 - Assistance from the High Commissioner/Centre for Human Rights and the Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice Division in the area of the administration of juvenile justice.
Myanmar	CRC/C/8/Add.9	CRC/C/15/Add.69 (fourteenth session)	Para. 31 - Cooperation for the promotion and protection of the rights of the child with United Nations bodies and specialized agencies. Para. 35 - Cooperation with United Nations bodies including the United Nations Children's Fund (UNICEF), the specialized agencies and national and/or international non-governmental organizations for the development of a comprehensive training programme especially focusing on child abuse. Para. 45 - International assistance from appropriate United Nations bodies, including UNICEF, the specialized agencies and non-governmental organizations for the full implementation of article 39 of the Convention. Para. 46 - Assistance from the High Commissioner/ Centre for Human Rights and the Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice Division of the United Nations in the area of the administration of juvenile justice.

State party	Initial report	Observations by the Committee	Areas identified for advisory services and technical assistance
Namibia	CRC/C/3/Add.12	CRC/C/15/Add.14 (fifth session)	Para. 12 - Consideration to be given to the possibility of Namibia becoming a party to all major international human rights instruments (assistance from the Centre for Human Rights). Para. 20 - Administration of juvenile justice (continued cooperation with the Centre for Human Rights, Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice Branch, UNICEF).
Nepal	CRC/C/3/Add.34	CRC/C/15/Add.57 (twelfth session)	Para. 26 - International cooperation with, inter alia, the Centre for Human Rights and UNICEF in ensuring specific training activities on the Convention to professional groups working with and for children, including teachers, social workers, health personnel, judges and law enforcement officials. Para. 35 - Cooperation with ILO in the area of child labour, with a view to considering ratifying ILO Convention No. 138, review national legislation to bring it in conformity with the Convention and other relevant international standards, ensuring enforcement of child labour laws, protecting children involved in informal sector.

State party	Initial report	Observations by the Committee	Areas identified for advisory services and technical assistance
Nepal (cont'd)	CRC/C/3/Add.34	CRC/C/15/Add.57 (twelfth session)	Para. 38 - Technical assistance programme to be developed with the Centre for Human Rights including in the areas of law reform in the field of children's rights and training of professionals working with children, awareness and information campaigns on the Convention, establishment of a Commission on Human Rights or other independent mechanisms to monitor children's rights issues. Para. 39 - Technical assistance from relevant international organizations including ILO, UNHCR, UNICEF, WHO, with consideration being given to developing a task-force of such international organizations present in the country.
Nicaragua	CRC/C/3/Add.25	CRC/C/15/Add.36 (ninth session)	Para. 32 - General implementation measures, with particular attention to the most vulnerable groups of children. Support for initiatives designed to facilitate international cooperation in assisting the State party to meet its obligations under the Convention. Para. 40 - Further technical assistance from ILO in the area of legal reforms and preventive campaigns to address the issue of child labour.
Nigeria	CRC/C/8/Add.26	CRC/C/15/Add.61 (thirteenth session)	Para. 38 - Further international cooperation for the implementation of measures identified for the application of the provisions of articles 28 and 29 of the Convention.

State party	Initial report	Observations by the Committee	Areas identified for advisory services and technical assistance
Pakistan	CRC/C/3/Add.13	CRC/C/15/Add.18 (sixth session)	Para. 31 - Assistance from the Centre for Human Rights for reviewing the system of the administration of juvenile justice. Para. 32 - Technical advice from ILO for evaluating the adequacy of measures taken to deal with issues of the exploitation of children. Para. 34 - Continued cooperation with IGOs and NGOs for improving the situation of children; assistance and advice upon request from the Centre for Human Rights, UNICEF, ILO and other interested organizations and agencies for programmes to implement the Convention.
Panama	CRC/C/8/Add.28	CRC/C/15/Add.68 (fourteenth session)	Para. 25 - Technical assistance from UNICEF for developing the data collection system and identifying appropriate disaggregated indicators. Para. 27 - Technical assistance from appropriate intergovernmental organizations, including the High Commissioner/Centre for Human Rights and UNICEF and non-governmental organizations for training and education on the Convention and the inclusion of children's rights in school curricula. Para. 33 - Assistance from ILO in the area of child labour. Para. 34 - Cooperation with UNHCR to develop procedures to facilitate family reunification, appoint legal representatives for unaccompanied children and apply child-friendly interview techniques. Para. 36 - Technical assistance from the High Commissioner/Centre for Human Rights and the Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice Division of the United Nations in the area of the administration of juvenile justice.

State party	Initial report	Observations by the Committee	Areas identified for advisory services and technical assistance
Paraguay	CRC/C/3/Add.17 CRC/C/3/Add.47	CRC/C/15/Add.27 (preliminary) (seventh session) CRC/C/15/Add.75 (fifteenth session)	Para. 16 - Incorporation in the activities organized under the joint programme of technical cooperation currently provided by the Centre for Human Rights and UNDP of the concerns raised by the Committee. Para. 32 - International cooperation for the development of a system of data collection and the identification of appropriate disaggregated indicators. Para. 48 - Technical assistance from the High Commissioner/Centre for Human Rights and the Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice Division of the United Nations to undertake a comprehensive reform in the area of the juvenile justice system.
Peru	CRC/C/3/Add.7	CRC/C/15/Add.8 (fourth session)	Para. 19 - International assistance to address more effectively the challenge of improving the situation of children in especially difficult circumstances.
Philippines	CRC/C/3/Add.23	CRC/C/15/Add.29 (eighth session)	Para. 26 - Technical assistance from ILO to implement the provisions of article 32 of the Convention. Para. 27 - Assistance in the administration of juvenile justice (law reform and training) from the Centre for Human Rights and the Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice Branch.

State party	Initial report	Observations by the Committee	Areas identified for advisory services and technical assistance
Poland	CRC/C/8/Add.11	CRC/C/15/Add.31 (eighth session)	Para. 31 - Technical assistance from UNHCR to address within legal reform the issue of unaccompanied children and children having been refused refugee status and awaiting deportation. Para. 32 - Technical assistance from the Centre for Human Rights and the Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice Branch in the area of juvenile justice (law reform and training). Para. 35 - Technical assistance and advice from, among others, the Centre for Human Rights and UNICEF, in implementing the Convention (in particular to harmonize national legislation with the Convention, develop a coordinating and monitoring mechanism on children's rights and adopt a comprehensive social policy with child rights as a priority).
Republic of Korea	CRC/C/8/Add.21	CRC/C/15/Add.51 (eleventh session)	Para. 30 - Consultation with ILO to pursue efforts to adopt appropriate measures to reflect fully the Convention in the area of child labour, including through consideration of the ratification of ILO Convention No. 138. Para. 31 - Assistance from the Centre for Human Rights and the Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice Branch in the area of administration of juvenile justice
Romania	CRC/C/3/Add.16	CRC/C/15/Add.16 (fifth session)	Para. 23 - Continued cooperation with the Centre for Human Rights in the field of advisory services and technical assistance and support from the international community in the field of child rights.
Russian Federation	CRC/C/3/Add.5	CRC/C/15/Add.4 (third session)	Para. 20 - International cooperation for support in the procurement and manufacture of vaccines.

State party	Initial report	Observations by the Committee	Areas identified for advisory services and technical assistance
Rwanda	CRC/C/8/Add.1	CRC/C/15/Add.12 (preliminary) (fourth session)	Para. 3 - Technical advice and assistance for the preparation of the report (art. 45 (b) of the Convention).
Senegal	CRC/C/3/Add.31	CRC/C/15/Add.44 (tenth session)	Para. 27 - Technical assistance from ILO to ensure that reform of child labour legislation should address the situation of children working in the informal sector, paying due attention to domestic service.
Sri Lanka	CRC/C/8/Add.13	CRC/C/15/Add.40 (ninth session)	Para. 26 - Technical assistance from the Centre for Human Rights in the legislative review in the areas of child abuse, child labour and juvenile justice. Para. 32 - International technical assistance for the training of professional groups, including teachers, law enforcement personnel, social workers and the military, with respect to the provisions of the Convention. Para. 41 - Technical assistance from ILO in the perspective of legislative reform on child labour.
Sudan	CRC/C/3/Add.3	CRC/C/15/Add.10 (fourth session)	Para. 20 - Continued cooperation with IGOs and NGOs to improve measures to alleviate the suffering of children.
Syrian Arab Republic	CRC/C/28/Add.2	CRC/C/15/Add.70 (fourteenth session)	Para. 22 - Cooperation with UNICEF for improving the data collection system and identifying appropriate and specific disaggregated indicators. Para. 30 - Assistance from the High Commissioner/ Centre for Human Rights and the Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice Division of the United Nations to undertake a reform of the system of juvenile justice. Para. 31 - Cooperation with UNICEF and national and international non-governmental organizations for the conduct of studies, notably in the fields of health, education and human rights education, and early marriage and child abuse.

State party	Initial report	Observations by the Committee	Areas identified for advisory services and technical assistance
Thailand	CRC/C/11/Add.13	CRC/C/15/Add.97 (nineteenth session)	Para. 14 - International cooperation to support the State party in fulfilling its obligations under article 4 of the Convention. Para. 15 - Technical assistance from, inter alia, the Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights and UNICEF for the dissemination of the principles and provisions of the Convention, including its translation into all minority languages, and for the training of professionals working for and with children. Para. 24 - International cooperation for the establishment of programmes such as the WHO/UNICEF programme "Integrated Management of Childhood Illness" to prevent and combat malnutrition in children. Para. 26 - International cooperation from, inter alia, UNICEF and WHO for the training of professional staff working with and for children with disabilities. Para. 28 - Technical assistance from UNHCR to introduce legislation for the protection of refugee children. Para. 31 - Technical assistance from the Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights, the Centre for International Crime Prevention, the International Network on Juvenile Justice and UNICEF, through the Coordination Panel on Juvenile Justice, for legal reform in the field of the administration of juvenile justice.

State party	Initial report	Observations by the Committee	Areas identified for advisory services and technical assistance
Togo	CRC/C/3/Add.42	CRC/C/15/Add.83 (sixteenth session)	Para. 33 - International cooperation from, among others, UNICEF for the development of a system of data collection and analysis. Para. 52 - Technical assistance from relevant organizations such as WHO for measures to prevent and combat drug and substance abuse among children and support rehabilitation programmes. Para. 54 - Seeking and reinforcing existing technical assistance from, among others, the Office of the High Commissioner for Human Rights and the Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice Division of the United Nations for a comprehensive reform of the juvenile justice system.
Trinidad and Tobago	CRC/C/11/Add.10	CRC/C/15/Add.82 (sixteenth session)	Para. 26 - Technical assistance for the development of a system of data collection. Para. 36 - International assistance in the area of education (full implementation of articles 28 and 29).
Tunisia	CRC/C/11/Add.2	CRC/C/15/Add.39 (ninth session)	Para. 15 - Technical assistance from ILO for the possible ratification of ILO Convention No. 138 and campaigns to prevent the entry of adolescents into the labour force. Para. 16 - Consultations with UNHCR with a view to considering the adoption of relevant legislative provisions regarding the rights of refugee and asylum-seeking children.

State party	Initial report	Observations by the Committee	Areas identified for advisory services and technical assistance
Uganda	CRC/C/3/Add.40	CRC/C/15/Add.80 (sixteenth session)	Para. 26 - Technical assistance for harmonizing national legislation with the provisions and principles of the Convention. Para. 27 - Technical assistance from, among others, UNICEF, to review the system of data collection and identify appropriate disaggregated indicators. Para. 36 - Technical assistance from the Office of the High Commissioner for Human Rights and the Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice Division of the United Nations for a comprehensive reform of the system of juvenile justice.
Ukraine	CRC/C/8/ Add.10/Rev.1	CRC/C/15/Add.42 (tenth session)	Para. 24 - International support for measures to cope with the negative consequences of the Chernobyl nuclear disaster, in particular in the social, health and environmental areas.
Uruguay	CRC/C/3/Add.37	CRC/C/15/Add.62 (thirteenth session)	Para. 18 - Further cooperation with UNICEF in gathering systematic quantitative and qualitative disaggregated data with a view to evaluating progress and difficulties and setting priorities for future action. Para. 24 - Assistance from the High Commissioner/Centre for Human Rights and the Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice Division in the area of the administration of juvenile justice. Para. 25 - Assistance from ILO to address the issue of child labour.

State party	Initial report	Observations by the Committee	Areas identified for advisory services and technical assistance
Viet Nam	CRC/C/3/Add.4	CRC/C/15/Add.3 (third session)	Para. 8 - Administration of juvenile justice (training course to be organized by the Centre for Human Rights).
Yemen	CRC/C/70/Add.1	CRC/C/15/Add.102 (twentieth session)	Para. 9 - Technical assistance from, inter alia, OHCHR and UNICEF, in the area of reporting obligations. Para. 12 - International cooperation, including from UNICEF, for the identification of appropriate disaggregated indicators for all areas covered by the Convention and for all groups of children under 18. Para. 13 - Cooperation from, inter alia, UNICEF and NGOs for the dissemination of the principles and provisions of the Convention. Para. 15 - International cooperation to support the State party in fulfilling its obligations under article 4 of the Convention. Para. 24 - International cooperation from, inter alia, UNICEF and WHO for the establishment of programmes such as "Integrated Management of Childhood Illness" to prevent and combat children's malnutrition and reduce the incidence of child and infant mortality. Para. 28 - International cooperation from, inter alia, UNICEF and UNESCO, for the strengthening of the educational system.

State party	Initial report	Observations by the Committee	Areas identified for advisory services and technical assistance
Yemen (cont'd)	CRC/C/70/Add.1	CRC/C/15/Add.102 (twentieth session)	Para. 30 - Technical assistance from, inter alia, UNHCR, for the introduction of legislation for the protection of refugee children. Para. 31 - International cooperation for the clearance of landmines and for the establishment of rehabilitation measures for children affected by armed conflicts. Para. 34 - Technical assistance from OHCHR, the Centre for International Crime Prevention, the International Network on Juvenile Justice and UNICEF through the Coordinated Panel on Juvenile Justice.
Zimbabwe	CRC/C/3/Add.35	CRC/C/15/Add.55 (twelfth session)	Para. 32 - Assistance from ILO in considering recommendations made by ILO in 1993 and in particular to prohibit employment below 18 in hazardous activities and to make education free and compulsory up to 15.